Dear Security Council Member,

We thank you for helping to pass, unanimously, United Nations Resolution 1769 which calls for the deployment a joint United Nations-African Union force of 26,000 troops for Darfur. We are pleased that the force will have the authority, under Chapter VII of the UN charter, to protect civilians, aid workers and themselves.

However, despite the fact that the Security Council has spoken loudly, with one voice, you must still be vigilant, both in ensuring the implementation of Resolution 1769, but also in promoting a peace process between the rebel groups and the Government of Sudan, which must disarm the Janjaweed and create a peaceful, stable Darfur that will not need 26,000 troops to protect Darfurian civilians.

The current timeline states that the troops will not be deployed until well into 2008. The people of Darfur cannot wait that long. While we recognize that it will take time to recruit, train and deploy large numbers of soldiers, we respectfully request that you work with the other members of the Security Council to ensure that the force is deployed in all due haste.

While the financial costs of this operation are daunting, the moral cost of allowing the continued death and displacement of civilians in Darfur is unacceptable. Therefore, you must ensure that this mission is adequately funded and supported.

We have already seen President Bashir delay, obstruct and eventually kill a similar UN Resolution (1706, passed in August 2006), which promised a UN force of 20,000 troops. We cannot again leave the people of Darfur unprotected any longer. You must hold President Bashir to his promise to allow these troops into Darfur, and do not allow him to delay or obstruct by requiring negotiation of each and every detail (such as the construction of new barracks for the soldiers, access to the country, visas, etc.). Additionally, there must be consequences, such as multilateral economic sanctions if he violates his promises.

Finally, a force is only part of the ultimate solution in Darfur. We must also concurrently promote a stable peace by encouraging an inclusive and thorough peace process which:

- Disarms the Janjaweed;
- Gives Darfurians a representative role in national and regional government; and
- Provides reparation- including compensation, rehabilitation and other measures - from the government to the victims for their losses.
- A safe return to their homes and protection of people and their livelihood

Again, we thank you for your support for this critical Resolution and hope that you will continue to work for peace and stability in Darfur.

Sincerely,
